SHIFT IN LINE-UP MADE TODAY PRIOR TOW. AND L. GAME

By LOUIS A. DOUGHER.

ROANOKE, Va., Nov. 17 .- A last minute shift was decided upon this morning by Coast Exendine before Georgetown's varsity eleven was ready to dress for its annual clash with the powerful Washington and Lee team at the fairgrounds here. Conneil, who has been playing left end ever since the season got under way, was ordered to sit on the side lines, and Harry Sullivan was told to start the game on the left wing.

Sullivan is on a furlough from the aviation service 'joining the varsity squad at the Hilltop only three weeks ago. He entered at once into the daily practice, and was used at halfback and also subbed at fullback after back and also subbed at fullback after Gross joined the injured in the Fordhail contest on eletelon day. Last year he was a substitute quarterback, but extra weight has made him available for halfback or end. His speed and ability at clashing forward passes is what decided Coach Exendine to use him at left end today.

Lee Cody is down to start at full-back today. Petie Wall has been unable to get away from Camp Devens as he had expected, and Cody, who suffered a fractured nose in the Le-high game, will be back on the job again. He has been the regular fullback in every game this season ex-cpet that against the Middles. Today's line-up-will be as follows:

Eastern scored on Tech via the aerial route, Newman to Thomas, forming the well known combination. It is true that tech, by reason of its greater weight scored twice the ground that Eastern did, but the Easterners p ayed Tech to a standstill throughout, and Willie Thomas, Wingfield, at end, and Gabby Newman stood cost us the shining lights

Wingfield, at end, and Gabby Newman stood out as the shining lights of the same.

"Gabby" Newman, Rastern's leader, might well change his name to "Ice" Newman, for he is cool under fire, takes his chances in picking out Thômas to heave to, and generally gets away with it. Tech's backs were completely Jus'ered when Newman passed to Thomas, and the youngster sot away with it in the last quarter. Eastern worked nine out of fourteen passes and once for a touchdown.

Tech had the better team. Of that there is no doubt. But Eastern held the Tech lads soutelers during the first quarter, and generally kept the bulkier Tech lads on the move throughout.

Eastern's strength may be measured by the fact that three times tech was held on the brink of a touchdown leside the ten-yard line. Tech scored first in the second period on the second play after rushing the ball up the field, Gurevich carrying the ball over. Bosley scored in the third period and Carpenter in the

STATE AND GALLAUDET PLAY AWAY FROM HOME

Maryland State College is at State College, Pa., playing the Penn State eleven today, while Gallaudet has eleven today, while Gallaudet has journeyed to Chestertown, Md. to meet the Washington College eleven. Maryland State, with several cripples, is stacking up against a strong eleven in Penn State, and is only hoping to keep the score down. The Staters hardly figure upon a win. Gallaudet's chances are more roseate, and Coach Moore expects a win.
